VOL. XVI. NO. 46

WRANGELL, ALASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1917

PRICE TEN CENTS

CABLE NEWS

PETROGRAD — Kerensky has been deposed.

Maximalists have obtained control of Petrograd.

A proclamation has been issued saying that the new government will propose immediate peace.

The Maximalists were assisted by the Petrograd garrison which made possible the coup d'etat without bloodshed.

Leon Trotzky, president of the Central Executive committee of the Petrograd council of soldiers and workmen's delegates issued a declaration to the effect that the provisional government is no longer in existence—that some of its members have been arrested and the preliminary parliament has been dissolved

About an hour before the receipt of the above the Sentinel received the following dispatch:

Petrograd.—An armed naval detachment under the order of Maximalist, the revolutionary commander, has occupied the offices of official Petrograd telegraph agency, central telegraph office, state bank at Marie palace where the preliminary parliament has suspended its proceedings. In view of the situation the government has decided not to resort to armed force for the present against the military committee of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, but has ordered the ministry of justice to prosecute members of the committee.

London.—Twelve British vessels were torpedoed during the week ending Wednesday, November 7.

Washington.—The safe arrival at a British port of the American commission to the allied war conference headed by Col. E. M. House has been announced by the State Department.

Washington.—President Wilson has proclaimed Thursday, November 29, as Thanksgiving Day. He points out that at a time when the world is shaken by war the people should be thankful that the United States is able to fight and has been so blessed that it can help supply the needs of her allies, and have supplies enough for her own use as well if economy is practiced.

Rome, Nov. 7.—Semi-official statement issued this afternoon says that the military situation though difficult is being held well in hand while the political situation is excellent. All living forces of the nation without the least discouragement are united for the attainment of the supreme aim. With the aid of the allies it is believed that they will succeed in repulsing the cajoleries of the enemy.

London, Nov. 7.—The British have consolidated newly won positions in Belgium.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

Will Maintain a Really First-Class All-Winter Service

Attention is directed to the change in the advertisement of the Canadian Pacific Railway (Steamship Lines).

It will be noticed that the C. P. R. is again giving Alaskans a really first-class all winter service by having the Princess Sophia on the Alaska route, and she will leave Wrangell southbound every alternate Friday morning.

American Army in France.—Details of the engagement in which Americans were killed disclosed a terrible hand to hand struggle with far superior numbers in which pistols, grenades, knives and bayonets were freely used. One American engaged two Germans with a bayonet. That was the last seen of him until after the raid when he was found dead. Another American was killed by a blow on the head with a rifle butt from above. The Germans left the trench as soon as possible taking their dead and wounded with them.

London, Nov. 7.—Germans stand with their backs to Roulers evidently determined to make their stand at the most important base until the last vestige of hope disappears. The British are within five miles. Its capture would menace Ostend Zeebrugge submarine bases.

Seattle, Nov. 6.—Twenty-three men, mainly Italian laborers, employed on the Alaska railroad, charged with having failed to register were arrested by Federal authorities upon the arrival of the Alameda today.

Washington, Nov. 7.—A statement made by Lansing indicates that the effect of the treaty between the United States and Japan will be far-reaching in the prosecution of the war against Germany and will stop German plotting in China.

New York, Nov. 7.—Not including the uncounted soldier vote Hylan's plurality is one hundred and fifty thousand the greatest ever given a New York mayor. Mitchell beat Hilquist by but seven thousand.

Camp Lewis, Nov. 6.—Col. Saville, head of Military police, charged that Mayor Gill is hampering his men in their investigation of German activity against the war in Seattle.

Juarez, Mexico, Nov. 7.—Villa followers boarded a Mexican Central train at Armendariz station and killed one hundred and twenty soldiers and passengers.

Seattle, Nov. 7.—Spokane sailed at two this morning. No passengers for Wrangell.

Seattle.—The Spokane will not call at Wrangell.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—Wesmorland Davis, democrat, elected governor of Virginia by thirty thousand majority.

Seattle, Nov. 7.—Brokers estimate that 90 per cent of the season's Alaska pack of salmon has been sold.

London, Nov. 7.—The town of Passchendaele, northeast Ypres, captured by the British.

Louisville, Nov. 7.—Democrats elected a majority of the legislature.

FISH SITUATION

Is Discussed by a Visitor From Seattle

(Petersburg Report)

H. S. Finch, of the Fish Clearing House, Seattle, arrived from the south last Friday and has spent the week greeting his former fellow townsmen and sizing up the fishing outlook in this section. Speaking of prices and conditions of the market, he said:

"The market will take everything offered in herring, even up to Christmas. This grade of milt and roe herring formerly went begging, but we do not hesitate to say that carefully cured and not over-salted milt and roe will find eager and willing buyers at excellent prices, regardless of size if packed in the usual two sizes. Pink salmon or humpback are now selling at $16.50 for the better fish, the last couple of ears shipped by us having gone at that price. Silvers or coho salmon have come into Seattle in very limited quantities and found very ready sales at $20 per barrel, this salmon caught in salt water being about equal in quality to Alaska reds or sockeyes. Bright falls or chums in barrels to date have not moved very fast, owing to the fact that there are still some pinks available, and also to the poor quality of most offerings. Mildeared Alaska kings are now bringing as high as 20 cents per pound for the select large sides, while even mildeared whites have brought 8½ cents and in some few cases 10 cents per pound.

Barrel manufacturers right now are inclined to look with fear into the future, as they anticipate great difficulty in obtaining sufficient steel for hoops, practically all the steel output being required for ship building and war equipment. There is some talk of using wooden hoops, but the labor situation and the quality of timber available for this purpose is not encouraging. It is possible that packers will not be able to get all the barrels they require for next year, and this matter has already been called to the attention of the proper government officials in hopes that the importance of fish in barrels as a food will not be overlooked."

Dr. C. H. Upton of Portland, who visited Wrangell last April, has been in town the past week and has decided to locate here. He has rented offices in the Uhler block. Dr. Upton has other interests in southeastern Alaska to which he will give a portion of his time.

Washington, Nov. 7.—American patrol boat Alcedo was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine in the war zone. One officer and twenty enlisted men are missing. The Alcedo was a converted yacht and carried seven officers and eighty-five men.

Italian Headquarters, Nov. 7.—After the enemy crossed the Tagliamento river a brigade of grenadiers heroically resisted their advance on a point fought until the last of their number was killed.

New York, Nov. 7.—Woman suffrage carried by about eighty thousand.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Woman suffrage defeated by about eighty thousand.

Albuquerque, Nov. 7.—State prohibition carried in New Mexico.

AL-KI IS A TOTAL LOSS

Juneau.—During a blinding snowstorm and with a strong northwest gale blowing, the steamer Al-Ki, of the Seattle S. S. Co., went ashore on point Gustavus at 12:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Passengers were immediately put into the lifeboats and after a few hours were picked up by the San Juan and later were transferred to the government boat Burnside and brought to Juneau. The ship began to sag and settle badly and was abandoned by the captain as a total loss Thursday night.

The Al-Ki struck a rock near Point Augustus, longitude 138 degrees and latitude about 58 degrees 20 minutes, at the entrance to Glacier bay and about 80 miles from Juneau. A terrific wind, which was coming from the northwest, swept the ship sideways and caused the accident.

When abandoned the Alki was sitting on a pinnacle of rock amidships with the bow and stern in deep water. The backbone of the ship was broken and the boat was sagging so badly it was unsafe for anyone to stay on board.

The Al-Ki had 21 tons of coal and other general merchandise for Sitka which were lost. She was one of the oldest ships on the run in southeastern Alaska, and has been a money maker for her owners.

The Portland and the Al-Ki were sister ships and as a strange coincidence they were both wrecked, though in different years, in the same month. The same purser was in both wrecks and also Mr. J. C. Moulton who travels for the Seattle Hardware Co. Our reporter asked Mr. Moulton who was the hoodoo, and he replied, "It must have been the purser or myself."

PETERSBURG NOTES

(Report)

The aggregate amount of Second Liberty Loan bonds subscribed for through the Bank of Petersburg was $8,400.

Fresh Fish shipments for the past week consisted of 118 boxes by the Glacier Fish Company and 36 boxes by the Ripley Fish Company.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Berg left on the Spokane, Wednesday night, for Tacoma. Mr. Berg expects to return north next week, while his wife will remain at Tacoma for several months.

Machinery and a supply of cans reached here on the Al-Ki for the Alaska Clam Canning company, a new enterprise which is to be established across the Narrows from Tonka in the saltery buildings formerly owned by Hungerford Bros. P. C. Horley, manager, and others connected with the company arrived Tuesday from Seattle. It is planned to have the cannery in operation within fifteen days.

RED + CROSS NOTES

A member of the Red Cross will be in the Town Hall on Friday of this week between three and four to receive donations for the work.

The total receipts from the Cooked Food sales is $141.85.

Anyone wishing wool and knitting needles will come to the Town Hall on Tuesday or Friday afternoons.

BISHOP P. T. ROWE PRAISES WRANGELL

Bishop Rowe at the conclusion of his sermon at St. Philip's church last Sunday evening congratulated Wrangell because of the work it has done for the Red Cross and because of its work for the Liberty Loan, speaking in part as follows:

"I can not conclude my remarks without congratulating Wrangell on account of what it has done for the Liberty Loan and for the Red Cross. It certainly speaks most highly for the patriotism of a community when such large sums of money have been given to the Red Cross, and when so many of your women are doing that which will help along this most necessary work. Many a soldier in the trenches and many a soldier in the hospitals will not only be made more comfortable, but perhaps will be saved by the results of your self-denial.

"You have not only given liberally, but you have freely put your money in the hands of the government to help it carry on the war. Even your boys and girls have taken a most generous part in this service, loaning their savings freely to the government.

"What you have done is only one more bit of evidence to show how the whole country is united in its determination to make the world free for Democracy. But you must remember that the work is not over yet. It is just beginning, and there will be a call for still greater self denial as the months come and go. I congratulate you because I know you understand this and will be always ready to do your part."

ELTON BARNES AND BRIDE WILL ARRIVE FIRST OF FEBRUARY

Engraved cards announcing the marriage of George Elton Barnes and Miss Daisy Maria Hilman were received by friends of the couple in Wrangell this week. The At Home card states that the couple will be at home after February first at Wrangell, Alaska.

As stated in the Sentinel last week the wedding occurred in Seattle, Saturday, October 27. The happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mark A. Mathews, noted pastor of Seattle's First Presbyterian church.

The bride was beautiful in cream messaline and orange blossoms typical of her native State of California. The happy young couple received a number of beautiful as well as useful presents.

Question: Does Prophecy connect the present War with the Jews?

Text: "And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea." Isaiah 11:11.

Come and let us study just where we are in the great calendar.

At the meeting of the town council Thursday night Capt. J. G. Grant was chosen for acting mayor during the absence of Mayor Matheson.

CHILBERG-SYLVESTER NUPTIALS

Miss Ann Sylvester of Wrangell becomes the bride of Hugh Chilberg of Seattle.

MARRIED—In Seattle, Washington at the home of the groom's parents on the evening of Sunday, November 4, 1917, Hugh Rinehart Chilberg and Miss Ann Sylvester of Wrangell, Alaska.

The above will be of much interest to the readers of the Sentinel.

The bride is a Wrangell girl who has lived here all her life except during the time she was in college. She is a very beautiful young woman, cultured and refined, and will make a premium wife.

Hugh Chilberg, the groom, has visited Wrangell several times. He is a man who is young enough to have his future before him. He is a son of J. E. Chilberg, one of the most successful business men on the Pacific coast who is president of the Scandinavian-American bank of Seattle, and also president of a chain of banks in Alaska extending from Ketchikan to Nome.

The Seattle Times of November 4 contains a picture of the bride which is two-thirds of a page in depth.

The Seattle paper says that Mr. and Mrs. Chilberg will receive the congratulations of a host of friends in Seattle and elsewhere. "Elsewhere" means Wrangell, the home of the bride, where she has a host of friends and is universally beloved.

Mrs. K. A. Kyvig of Anchorage who spent several weeks in Wrangell visiting her friend, Mrs. Edwin Hofstad, left a few days ago for the States to join her husband. Dr. and Mrs. Kyvig were formerly residents of Wrangell leaving here 14 years ago.

E. M. McKew who went to Seattle two months ago was aboard the Jefferson Tuesday returning from a short trip to Juneau. Mr. McKew stated that he expects to return to Alaska in the near future and will be located on Prince William Sound.

Dr. J. L. Bulkley arrived from Petersburg on the Spokane Tuesday morning. He closed a deal immediately with Dr. W. J. Pigg for the purchase of the Wrangell hospital. Dr. Bulkley returned to Petersburg Tuesday on the gasboat of Ole Hansen. The doctor will return to Wrangell Friday or Saturday in company with Mrs. Bulkley and will take charge of the hospital.

Bishop and Mrs. Rowe and infant son arrived in Wrangell last week and were in Wrangell over Sunday. The bishop was in charge of the service at St. Philip's church morning and evening. There were two confirmations, one from the white Sunday-school and one from the Native Sunday-school.

A member of the Red Cross will be in the town hall on Friday, November 9, between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon to receive donations for the work.

Idealism the Chief Characteristic of the American People

By Dean WILLIAM M. GROSSE,
NOR, Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City

WHAT is the chief characteristic of the American people? You may not agree with me, but I think it is idealism. I know the familiar arguments that insist we are nothing but commercialized materialists, but all great nations, however large or small, have been traders.

It is inevitable that commerce should be developed, and the millions of human beings in Europe and Asia starved and overtaxed and helpless in their old homes, are coming to America to FIND A BETTER AND HAPPIER HOME THAN THEY COULD EVER GET IN THE USED UP RESOURCES OF THE OLDER CIVILIZATION.

Of course we are commercial, and I thank God for it, for it means millions for decent homes instead of the wretchedness of the peasant life of Europe.

THE IDEALISM OF AMERICA IS TO BE SEEN, AMONG OTHER THINGS, IN THIS COUNTRY'S SYSTEM OF SCHOOLS, IN ITS SCIENTISTS AND IN ITS NATION BUILDERS.

Any Business Directed by Selfishness Destined to Failure

By B. F. HARRIS, President First National Bank of Champaign, Ill.

WE do not believe that any man can be a good banker or a good business man who is not first a good citizen—in all that term implies. You may call this idealism, but I ask you to show me today the man or the business, the bank or the institution not directed by service nor squaring up to the Golden Rule—and I will show you a dead or a passing one.

SOME INCENTIVE BESIDES THE DOLLAR IS NEEDED TO SAVE US FROM FAILURE.

Never in the world's history nor in our own in these portentous times of stress and readjustment was such a spirit so necessary nor from any class of men more than from the banker-farmer class. We have very much to maintain as well as attain. All that we and those who have gone before us sought for and wrought for and fought for is more than ever worth fighting for, and these REQUISITES OF CITIZENSHIP WE ARE WORKING FOR SPELL THOROUGH PREPAREDNESS, INDEPENDENCE AND PROTECTION IN EVERY SANE FORM.

Consolation.

"I got tired asking the boss of my department for a raise, so this morning I went right up to the superintendent and struck him for it; told him I had grown gray in his service."

"What did he say?"

"He said if I had worked anywhere else I would probably have grown bald."—Puck.

General Precaution.

"This seems to be a very dangerous precipice," remarked the tourist. "I wonder that they have not put up a warning board."

"Yes," answered the guide, "it is dangerous. They kept a warning board up for two years, but no one fell over, so it was taken down."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

JUNEAU, ALASKA

CHAPTER 55 AN ACT

(S. B. 13)

To regulate and limit the hours of employment for all wage and salary earners in the Territory of Alaska, to declare the violation thereof a misdemeanor and to prescribe the punishment therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. That a period of employment for all wage earners, and salary earners in the Territory of Alaska shall not exceed eight hours (8) within any one calendar day, except in cases when life or property is in imminent danger. Employment as herein used shall be construed as the performance of labor or services for any individual, partnership, association or corporation, whether the person performing such labor or service be a member of such partnership or association or stockholder or officer of such corporation or not.

Section 2. Any person, persons, association or corporation who shall violate or cause to be violated any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment in the Federal jail not less than sixty days (60), nor more than six months (6), or by both such fine and imprisonment. Every day's violation of the provisions of this act, shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 3. The Governor of the Territory is hereby given the power to suspend or modify restrictions contained in this law when such shall be requested by the Council of National Defense or the Secretary of the Interior, and such modification or suspension when made shall continue for a specified period and not longer than the duration of the present war, or during the continuation of any future war with a foreign power.

Section 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after January 1, 1918.

Approved May 3, 1917.

In The RED CROSS Country Hospital

WITHIN the walls of this cool, tranquil place
Lie wounded men from northern battlefields,
With shattered limb, with wan and pain streaked face.
Safely they rest, they whom the Red Cross shields.

THE roar of gun, the shriek of bomb and shell,
The shrapnel hissing through the awful din,
Are silenced here; a nearby chapel bell strikes the calm hours; quietly within The restful rooms the men lift up their eyes
To that small Crimson Cross afloat on peaceful skies.

Persons Who Lack Power of Strong Emotion Rarely Achieve Success

By Dr. G. STANLEY HALL, President of Clark University

A PERSON who cannot become mad can never accomplish anything worth while in the world. Anger is an aggressive force in human nature. FEAR, ON THE OTHER HAND, IS THE MOTHER OF WISDOM—KNOW NOTHING, FEAR NOTHING.

If we are to conserve sex purity and to protect the next generation the schools should be made more interesting. Generate interest in anything, you have diverted the attention of the child from sex. The sedentary life of the school, dull tasks, uninteresting teaching, impure air and a routine existence all work together to produce the debauchee. Class and personal instruction in sex matters is a dangerous thing. A better way is to keep the child, especially the boy, interested in some activity, either mental or athletic.

The life of the child should be emotional. The best education is the one that evokes humanistic emotions.

THE OLD CULTURAL IDEA THAT A PERSON SHOULD STUDY WHAT IS UNINTERESTING TO DEVELOP WILL POWER IS A FALLACY. VERY LITTLE OF THAT IS ALL THAT WILL BE NECESSARY.

Graphic Description.

Zach had been introduced to a new circular saw. The foreman of the sawmills performed the introduction, and after giving Zach a few necessary extra instructions he left him to his work. Zach was really interested in the buzzing blade, and his curiosity getting the better of his discretion, he soon found himself minus a finger. Despite his excitability he was something of a stoic, so he bound up his wound without seeking assistance. While he was thus enraged the foreman reappeared. To him Zach described the accident.

"But how on earth did you manage it?" the foreman exclaimed angrily, for the prospects of damages ahead were not exactly pleasant.

Zach shook his head.

"Sure, an' I don't know," he said. "I just touched the thing like this with my finger when—I'm blessed if there ain't another one gone!"—New York Times.

Remarkable Reptiles.

During the time of deposition of the clays constituting the Morrison shale in southern Colorado there existed a great variety of remarkable reptiles of huge size. Their bones, which are in places abundant, are the remains of animals that were buried in the soft clay of which Morrison formation largely consists. Some of these creatures, such as the breotosaurus, were sixty feet long. Many of them had remarkably small heads, notably the stegosaurus, which had so diminutive a brain that it must have been very stupid. This animal was undoubtedly very clumsy also, but its huge size and protective armor aided in its preservation.—Geological Survey Bulletin.

A Queer Ceremony.

A queer ceremony is performed every year on the 8th day of September in the Valle Maggio, Italy. The region abounds in vipers. The celebrants form into a weird procession, each person—man, woman and child—carrying a huge figure of a snake stuffed with cotton. As they pass along they weep and lament, believing that by the exorcitory ceremony they will render themselves proof against snake bites during the grape gathering.

SHARK SKINS ARE WANTED BY DEALERS

E. P. Walker, Inspector of Fisheries, with headquarters at Wrangell, states that a market for shark skins is open for enterprising Alaska fishermen.

The Bureau of Fisheries has been endeavoring to develop a market for this product which can be had in large quantities in the waters of the North, and several concerns now have made known to the Bureau that they are desirous of obtaining quantities of the skins without delay.

One company which is in the market, claims to offer as high as twenty cents per pound delivered in New York for shark skins. Another firm will pay seventeen cents F. O. B., Seattle.

It's plainly stated that the Bureau will assume no responsibility for the financial standing or business dealings of the parties making the offers.

Inspector Walker says that interested persons should communicate with him at Wrangell.

It is supposed that the fish skins will be treated in a way that will make them suitable for the common uses of leather.

URGES DEVELOPMENT OF HERRING INDUSTRY

David C. Reed of 18 Broadway, New York, who is a ship broker and chartering agent, and also interested in the fish business, a few weeks ago addressed a letter to Doctor Smith, Commissioner of Fisheries at Washington, in which he called attention to the great demand for kippered herring. One paragraph from Mr. Reed's letter is as follows:

"When I was on the Pacific coast this spring I found in Vancouver kippered herring quite equal to anything we had in Scotland or England, and I do not see why you do not get these from Tacoma, Seattle, and along our Pacific coast ports, packed in the same boxes and put up in the same way as they are doing at Vancouver. They are the cheapest and among the best of breakfast foods, and I think this idea is well worth your looking into."

St. Philip's Church, Sunday evening, November 11.

Nothing clogs the mind and blinds the eye more than selfishness. The man exclaiming, "I should worry; I am doing as I please" naturally cannot understand, but let such a man be suddenly obsessed by a great idea of self sacrifice and he begins to see. This explains why, as a British officer states, men in the trenches believe in eternal life. The theme will take up the subject, "What makes eternal life possible, and what may destroy all hopes of eternal life?" All are invited.

George LaBounty and little son, Cleve, returned to Skagway on the Jefferson from Juneau. Mr. LaBounty went as far to the Westward as Yakutat and then returned to Juneau and brought home his little son who has been for sometime visiting with his grandmother Mrs. Julia LaBounty.—Skagway Alaskan.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Ross and their two children Louise and Jack were aboard the Alameda from Anchorage and will make Skagway their future home. This is welcome news as the Ross family were very popular in Skagway and have a host of friends. Mr. Ross is connected with the Bank of Alaska.—Skagway Alaskan.

ATLIN PEOPLE ON WAY SOUTH

A large number of Atlin people were aboard the Princess Sophia southbound Friday night. Among them were:

Paul Grver, and wife, Mr. Grier is manager of the Columbia Mines Co., and of the O'Donnell Placer Co.

J. A. Quick, and wife, Mr. Quick is accountant for the Columbia Mines and for the O'Donnell Placer Co.

Other employees of the same company aboard were T. Ruffner and Albert Berger, foreman of the pits, and Harry Elgin, master mechanic for the companies. Also thirteen Japanese employees.

A Curious Boat.
According to a Chinese legend, there lived in Canton 200 years before Christ an artist named Lin Kao Fong, who won an immortal reputation owing to the fact that he was able to fashion out of a bean pod a boat, complete with rudder, sails, mast and all other necessary appurtenances. Moreover, on the exterior of the boat were engraved various maxims by Confucius. For this masterpiece, it is said, the Emperor Tsu Fou paid him 1,000 taels.

No Change.

The dinner was very bad. "Another new cook, eh?" said Mr. Dawson. "It is strange what a time we have with cooks. The Dixons have no such trouble. Dixon was telling me only yesterday that they have had the same cook for ten years."

"Yes, dear," said Mrs. Dawson sweetly, "and did he tell you who she is?"

"No. Who is she?"

"His wife."—New York Times.

Ponies and Horses.

I have been asked a great many times if ponies are really more intelligent than full sized horses. They certainly appear to be. But the intelligence of any horse will develop under petting and human companionhip, and there is no doubt that other horses, if given the same privileges that ponies enjoy and if their size admitted of their being handled and managed in the same way, would prove equally intelligent.—Onting.

Insects That Use Rubber.

When Para trees are tapped after the gum has run into receptacles and stiffened a species of large black ant is accustomed to cut out pieces of the rubber and carry them away. Bees also find uses for india rubber, and some species in South America actually eat the bark of trees that produce resinous substances in order to cause a flow of the sap. The gum is employed by the bees as a ready made wax for their nests.

Still Wondering.

The deaf man got out of the tramcar on to the other line of rails. "Look out! There's a car coming!" cried the conductor.

"What?" said the deaf man.

"There's a car coming."

"What?"

Just then the car caught and knocked down the deaf man, and as he picked himself up he said:

"I wonder what that fool kept me there talking about!"—London Mail.

A Laughing Face.

How it blesses the street, a face laughing all to itself! As one sees it the corners of his mouth begin to twitch, too, with God's good gift. Eyes light, strangers greet knowingly, hearts soften, spirits rise, lives brighten, and the world grows friendly within the circle of the merry echo.—William C. Gannett.

BANK OF ALASKA

Alaska's Branch Banking System

An Institution of Strength and Character

CAPITAL $50,000.00 SURPLUS $20,500.00

Although an integral part of the one system, each branch has had assigned to it the full amount of capital required by the Territorial Banking Board for the establishment of a bank in such a location. Each branch is therefore equipped to serve its customers as fully as any independent bank, but with the added strength and resources of the entire institution to draw upon. Furthermore each is responsible to the Territorial Banking Board, is examined and supervised independently and renders its statement direct to the Board. The Bank of Alaska is therefore, because of its double supervision and safeguards, peculiarly "An Institution of Strength and Character."

Air Gun Nuisance

At the meeting of the town council held on last Thursday evening the matter of the air gun nuisance was brought up. It was pointed out that boys have been using air guns within the town limits with the result that street lights, window panes, have been broken and birds have been killed and maimed. Town marshal Earl West was called in and instructed to see that the nuisance is stopped. The news of the matter coming up in the council meeting seems to have spread rapidly as the boys have ceased shooting in town and are planning on some great hunting expeditions outside the town limits on Saturdays.

George Anderson, piano tuner and factory representative for high grade pianos, is now in Seattle on a business trip. He will stop off in Wrangell on his return to Juneau. Leave any messages for him with J. G. Grant at the Wrangell hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo H. Schmolek and little daughter arrived this week from Holbrook. They have apartments in the Uhler block and will spend the winter in Wrangell.

A cry of distress was heard in Wrangell about 10 o'clock Tuesday night when a passenger off the Dispatch walked off the Columbia & Northern dock, falling into four feet of water. The traveller had been up town for several hours and gotten in such a condition that he needed a friend to look after him. However, his splash in the icy water of the bay tended to have a reviving effect. At least there was nothing the matter with his voice when it came to waking the town to the fact that he had come to grief. Marshal Earl West, Wm. Patterson and others went to his rescue.

Harry Ferguson went to Ketchikan on the City of Seattle Monday. Mr. Ferguson was drawn for jury service.

J. M. Irvine came in this week from the West Coast.

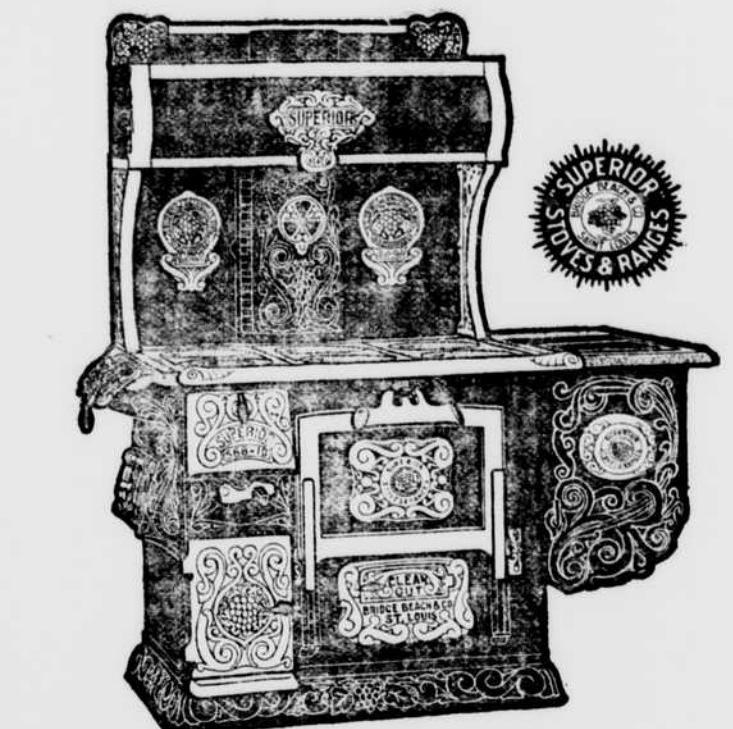

Postmaster J. E. Worden this week bought the residence of Dr. C. A. Emery. Mr. Worden stated to the Sentinel reporter that there has been considerable sickness in his family since they went to Seattle, besides the vice conditions in Seattle at present make it an undesirable place in which to live. He stated that his family would likely return to Wrangell.
